

Please create original sentences for each of the following words, underlining the word in your sentence.

1. anthropomorphism (n.) Attribution of human characteristics to inanimate objects, animals, or natural phenomena. The author used anthropomorphism in his writing to bring the storm to life.
2. apotheosis (n.) Deification; exaltation to divine rank. Once he completed his final labor, Hercules experienced apotheosis.
3. appease (v.) To bring peace or calm to; to soothe. The comfort of a mother's arms is often enough to appease a fearful child.
4. archetype (n.) A model or prototype; an ideal example of a type. The archetype of the mean stepmother is illustrated well in "Cinderella."
5. atonement (n.) A making up for past wrongs. Your half-hearted apology hardly counts as atonement.
6. bane (n.) A cause of death, destruction, or ruin. The drug addict's never-ending supply of methamphetamine was the bane of his existence.
7. beseech (v.) To request earnestly; to beg. I beseech you to stop your horrendous behavior; you're embarrassing yourself and those around you.
8. exonerate (v.) To free from blame. The man was exonerated once the lawyer revealed the DNA evidence.
9. expiate (v.) To make amends or reparations for; to atone. Hercules attempted to expiate for his sins by completing the twelve labors.
10. matriarchal (adj.) Dominated by a female figure or authority. The Minoans were a matriarchal society.

Greek Root: AUT, AUTO: "self"

Latin Root: AM, AMOR: "love," "liking," "friendliness"